Del. James Wickersham Is Coming Monday

James Wickersham, Independent Candidate for Delegate

The Honorable James Wickersham, present Delegate to Congress from Alaska, and candidate for re-election, will arrive in Wrangell next Monday and will deliver an address on the political issues confronting Alaskans, in Red Men's Hall at 8:30 P. M. Mr. John Rusgard, of Juneau, is accompanying Delegate Wickersham.

The wire announcing the address was received by Mr. H. D. Campbell from Mr. Rusgard from Ketchikan, and Mr. Campbell and other friends of Delegate Wickersham are busy arranging for a public reception in his honor to consist of dancing, card playing and supper, to take place immediately after the close of the address. The entire public are cordially invited to attend the address and reception and a special invitation is extended to the ladies of Wrangell to be in attendance.

Delegate Wickersham needs no introduction to our readers and his record of achievement during his long and faithful services as our Delegate to Congress certainly entitles him to the consideration of the voters of the Territory of Alaska.

Bulgarian Forces Take Several Cities

London, Sept. 9—The Bulgarian right wing is moving up the coast along the Black Sea and occupy the Roumanian seaport towns of Balchik and Caverna and the great fortified towns at Crzova.

This movement opens a new way for the invasion of Austria Hungary.

Demands Money Of Governor

Sacramento, Cal. Sept. 9—Governor Johnson yesterday received a blackhand letter demanding the sum of twenty thousand dollars to be left at a certain place otherwise the fate of the Governor would be unknown. A large number of special and state police have been detailed to investigate the case and run the blackhand members to justice if possible.

Public Meeting Next Thursday Eve. To Recommend A Trustee

City Fathers Call A Public Meeting To Give Citizens A Chance To Express Their Opinions

At the meeting of the council held last Thursday evening the matter of the coming appointment of a townsite trustee was discussed and for the purpose of getting the sentiment of the people of Wrangell it was decided to hold a public meeting, and next Thurs. evening at 8:30 P. M. was decided upon. The meeting to be held in the town hall on Church Street.

The matter of a townsite trustee is of vital importance to every citizen and property holder of Wrangell and everyone should attend. There are several local men who are willing to accept the position but it seems to be the sentiment that an outside man should be asked for. While the appointing of a trustee resides wholly in Washington the fact that any one man is endorsed by the citizens of Wrangell will carry much weight and is something that should not be considered lightly. The townsite survey has hung fire for several years and the appointing of the right man is a long step towards getting things settled in a satisfactory manner.

Great Losses Since July Says Berlin

Berlin, Sept. 9—Military experts made public the statement yesterday to the effect that the allies have lost a million men, killed wounded and missing since the great offensive movement started in July. It is also estimated that the Russians have lost six hundred thousand men killed, wounded and missing.

Young People Go South To Attend School

A number of Wrangell's young people have left in the past week for Seattle and other coast cities where they will attend school this winter. Among those leaving were Adolf Engstrom, Jr. Louie and Ned Lemieux, Lloyd Myers, Wm. Wollard, and Miss Margaret Uhler on the City of Seattle and Miss Elfrida Emery and Helen Hofstad on the Jefferson today. Mrs. Hofstad accompanied her daughter south and will visit for a time in the states.

Mr. Tyson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs for the Dominion Government of Canada, is in Wrangell on his way to inspect the station at Telegraph Creek.

Let Harry Brice do your plumbing and repair work.

Reward For Body Of Missing Man

The body of Chas. Anderson who was supposed to have fell overboard from his seine skiff on the night of August 29th and drowned has not been found although every effort is being made by his friends to find the body. Mr. Gus Adolphson, friend of the missing man, has asked the Sentinel to state the fact that he will pay ten dollars to anyone finding the body or giving any information as to where the missing man can be found.

Hazel B II Has Made Last Trip For Season

The river boat Hazel B. II has made her last trip up the Stikine for the season and will be laid up for the winter here. Capt. Barrington states that he will be on the river as soon as navigation opens in the spring and will be ready to handle all business in sight. The passengers down on the boat were Mrs. Robert Hyland and baby, and John Preston.

G. C. Chapin, Superintendent of the Karheen Packing Company Cannery at Karheen, Alaska, is in town today. Mr. Chapin reports a good season on the West Coast and states that he has his full pack up.

How is your subscription?

The Alaska Fish Measure Is Killed

Washington, Sept. 9—The Alaska Fish measure was killed yesterday. Several sensational charges were made and will be investigated at once. Senator Chamberlain stated yesterday that the action taken by Congress was humiliating and disgraceful and means a surrender by the United States to the Canadian Government in the interest of Canadian commerce.

Mr. H. C. Strong, of Ketchikan who is in Washington in the interest of the bill, stated last night that he was very disappointed in the outcome but that he was not discouraged.

Owing to the outcome and the strong fight being put up a decision has been reached in both the house and senate which results in the ordering of an investigation of the alleged Canadian lobby by the senate lobby investigating committee.

Gets 90 Days On Vagrancy Charges

Arthur Roy, was found guilty at a jury trial last night on the charge of vagrancy and sentenced to 90 days in the Federal jail. Roy has been sick for some time and being destitute it was thought best to give him a sentence so as to provide medical attendance for the unfortunate man.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.
To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/2 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for mixing and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not wash off.

Notice To Creditors

In the Probate Court, Wrangell Precinct, First Division of Alaska.
In the matter of the Estate of W. J. Jones, Deceased.
TO ALL PERSONS WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
Please take notice that on the 13th day of May I was duly appointed Administrator of the above estate, and on the same Letters of Administration were duly issued to me.
All persons having claim against said Estate should present same to me at my store, in Wrangell, District aforesaid, within six months from the date of this Notice.
Dated at Wrangell, Alaska, this 9th day of May; 1916.
CHAS. BENJAMIN
Administrator of above named Estate.

Recapitulation.
When the world rolls round to autumn and the leaves begin to turn we take the family census once again. There are constellated freckles. There are streaks of tan and burn. But the pleasure overbalances the pain. For father's brought the motor home all battered, it is true— But we paid his fines and kept him out of jail. And mother isn't drowned, although she often said she knew She would be if we took her out to sail. Big Brother Bill has not been carried out into the sea, As we expected, in his motorboat. We rescued Sister Sadie every time we found that she Was terror stricken when she tried to float. The big ones and the little ones have all survived the fray. And, though we've had our troubles more or less, We settle down in comfort and without deception say The summer outing was a great success.—Washington Star.

The Busy Invalid.
A certain prominent business man in Cleveland went to his physician the other day and complained that he was suffering from loss of appetite, drowsiness and a bad taste in his mouth. The doctor looked at his tongue, felt his pulse, applied the stethoscope and then said: "All you need is exercise. You should walk or ride on horseback for three hours every day."
"Three hours!" screamed the patient. "Why, doc, when would I eat and sleep?"
Which shows that the doctor's diagnosis was about right.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Eugenics.
No whispered words of love I bring. Such sentiments are old and stupid. Nor yet of passion will I sing. We've long since superseded Cupid. But at your feet I lay my chart Descriptive of my rare attractions (My muscles fill the greater part; My beauty's shown in vulgar fractions) Nay, answer not, "Pray ask papa!" In manner of our predecessors. Poor pa is now a fallen star. We ask consent of wise professors. In council they'll discuss our claim Where none their wisdom may disparage. And on the minute they'll proclaim Our banish in scientific marriage.—London Opinion.

Where He Draw the Line.
"I don't mind your trying to sell me blue paint when I ask for black," said the irate customer.
"But, sir—"
"I don't object to your trying to force me to buy a screwdriver because you haven't the sort of garden hose I want."
"My dear sir—"
"You can try substitution all you want to, and if you get away with it all right. But when you try to convince me every time I come into your store that I ought to adopt your politics instead of my own I draw the line. Good day."—Detroit Free Press.

Captive.
He's big and strong and manly As any man could be. His heart is full of courage, As any one can see. If fate should be against him He'd battle unto death And never give up fighting Until his final breath.
He's bold and lion hearted; He's ignorant of fear; He has no dread of danger, Although it may be near. And still for what I'll tell you Perhaps you are prepared— He knows a five foot maiden, And she has got him scared!—Somerville Journal.

Valdez Editor Says A Real Prayer

It must be as hard to collect subscriptions in Valdez as in Wrangell, from the following clipping taken from the Valdez Miner.

"An editor went to church the other day (this is a fable) and was called on to lead in prayer, when he responded as follows:

"Almighty, the kind Father, who doth look down on the government of delinquent subscribers, we most humbly beseech thee to draw near unto them and whisper a few things into their ears that the statutes forbid us to print. Thou knowest our wants but the subscribers know them not, and seldom, if ever, stops to inquire. Let it be known to them that there are patches on our overalls, that our site walketh in rags, and there is an aching void in front of the back of our little ones—that we hunger and thirst, and that they ask us not to come and sup with them. Thou knowest, Lord, that ink and paper costeth much money, but the subscriber knoweth not, and careth a darn sight less. Thou knowest we are cold and walk without the bright lights of the moving picture show with no money to go inside, while our delinquent subscriber toasteth his shins inside. Tell him all these things, Lord, and if he fail to relieve us, banish him to the lower regions to dwell with the progressive-democrats and other calamity howlers, and thine shall be the praise. Amen."

Dignity of Senatorial Visiting.
There is something impressive in the way one senator generally enters another in the office building at Washington. A repressive dignity precludes the old time free and easy method of "dropping in to see Tim" or Jim or Jack—kicking in the door and sitting down on the table or desk and "smoking up" without invitation. Today there is a sedate step, measured and regular, as the senator sets out to call, with a manner and bearing that at once suggest senatorial dignity and courtesy. Such a bearing and dignity must perforce take the place of the impressive senatorial form of the old days, and a visiting dramatist in lady, to be sure, has suggested that it would be most fascinating to come to the senate on some holiday and find the distinguished gentlemen who now wear tweed and business suits attired in the Caesarian toga and mantle—a mise en scene that would leave Shakespeare's Julius Caesar at its best presentation hopelessly in the background.—Joe Mitchell Chapple in National Magazine.

Borrowed to Save.

Uncle Reuben, the village white-washer and man of all work, was a frequent borrower of small sums from his neighbor, Colonel Arkwright, and as a rule he repaid these little debts at the appointed time. But on one occasion when he had been accommodated with a loan of $2.50, which he promised to return in a few days, he allowed two or three weeks to pass without making any mention of his indebtedness and, in fact, seemed to avoid his creditor. But one morning the colonel unexpectedly encountered him at the postoffice.

"Hello, Uncle Reub! Didn't you borrow a little money from me several weeks ago?"

"Dat's right, cunnel," said the old man. "I sholy did."

"You told me you'd pay it back in three or four days. Have you had bad luck?"

"No, suh," responded Uncle Reuben. "I tell you how it was, cunnel. I lacked jes' two dollahs an' a half o' havin' ten dollahs to put in de savin's bank, an' I used it fo' dat. It's all right, cunnel. I won't fo'git it."

Building a Stovepipe.
When a stovepipe is too small for a hole in the chimney a bushing can readily be made of metal tobacco boxes that are curved to fit in the pocket, says Mechanics. Remove the tops and bottoms of the boxes and shove them in around the pipe. If such tobacco boxes are not at hand tin cans of any kind can be used by melting off the tops and bottoms and bending the remaining cylindrical shells into proper shape.
